WILLIAM O. BRADLEY he is the Governor of Kentucky; and he will remain Governor of Kentucky until some gentleman comes along with the proper credentials to take his place.

MR. GOEBEL might be a little modest anyway. He ought at least to wait till his Election Commissioners count him in before he threatens to take the Governor's chair in spite of BRADLEY's bayonets and the L. and N.

GOEBEL, in a letter to one of his friends at Elizabethtown, says—
"I intend to be the next Governor of Kentucky in spite of L. and N. things."

This is conclusive proof that his scheme is to force his Election Commissioners, composed of three Democrats, to count him in, "in spite of all things,"—including hell, Bradley's bayonets and the L. and N. Railroad.

AMONG other things that WILLIAM GOEBEL said in his ill-timed speech at Frankfort—

"All I have to say is, if I have been elected, as I believe, I will be inaugurated in spite of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and Bradley bayonets."

That was enough to say. "If" Mr. GOEBEL has been elected fairly and honestly he will be inaugurated, with the best wishes of every true Kentuckian for his success; but "if" he intends to usurp the office in defiance of the voters of the state, he may be induced to yield to "Bradley bayonets" just as he and his gang of "cutthroats and assassins" yielded to them once before on a memorable occasion.

THE Colorado Silver Republicans who deserted the party in 1896 have concluded that after all it is moving along the right line and ought to be supported. In a platform adopted in Denver they demanded "the vigorous and speedy prosecution and termination of the War in the Philippine Islands and the earliest establishment and recognition of National authority there to the end that the best possible Government may be established in those islands," while similar expressions, coming from Silver Democrats through the South, show that the attempts to reorganize the Democratic party on anti-expansion lines cannot be successful.

THERE was a Goebel demonstration at Frankfort Wednesday night, with GOEBEL as the star demonstrator. After a few incendiary utterances from himself he introduced one WILLARD MITCHELL, saying he was "the gamest Democrat in Kentucky," and MITCHELL proved it. See him spit thunder and lightning.

"Before BRADLEY can name a Governor in Kentucky," said he, "by the eternal gods we will not have a white Republican in Kentucky. Go home," he said in conclusion, "and prepare yourselves to assist in the inauguration of BILL GOEBEL."

Just what MR. MITCHELL proposes for the black brothers is a profound secret, but the white Republicans had best take to the bushes without further notice.

P. S.—Who the devil is WILLARD MITCHELL anyway, and where is his National Cemetery?

MR. BRYAN remarked in one of his recent speeches that "Three years have justified the assertions made by the Democratic party in 1896." Mr. BRYAN seems to have forgotten the fact that in spite of the assertions of the Democratic party in 1896 the money in circulation in the United States has meantime increased from $1,506,000,000 to $2,000,000,000, the per capita of money in circulation from $21.15 to nearly $26, the gold in circulation from $464,000,000 to about $750,000,000, the exports of manufactures from $238,000,000 to $338,000,000 and the total exports from $882,000,000 to $1,227,000,000 per annum. If this justifies Democratic predictions of 1896 the country will listen with equanimity to more of the same sort in 1900.

Bath Fiscal Court has reduced the salary of the County Judge of that county from $1,000 to $700, to take effect upon the advent of the Judge who was elected Tuesday.

Used By British Soldiers in Africa.
Captain C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galla. Under date of November 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial."

THE COMMONWEALTH.

RESULT OF AN OLD GRUDGE.

Dan Murray, Well Known Race Caller, Attacked by Curly Brown, Formerly a Starter at the Newport Track.

NEWPORT, Ky., Nov. 10.—A bloody fight occurred on the Newport track Thursday afternoon just before the last race was run. Dan Murray, the well known race caller and form book man, was attacked by Curly Brown, formerly starter at the track, and badly beaten up. The fight took place in a room under the grand stand, and there are many conflicting stories out regarding the trouble. It is claimed that Brown's two brothers-in-law, named Keating, who are assisting Starter Holtman at the present meeting, were with Brown when he jumped on Murray. The trouble is the result of an old grudge which sprung up between Murray and Brown on the Canadian circuit last summer. Murray's face is cut in several places and he also received a deep gash in the side of the head. Murray is in a serious condition at his hotel in Cincinnati. Brown left the track after the affair, but was later taken into custody and put under bond. The judges suspended the assistant starter and the case will come up for a hearing Friday morning at the Queen City race track.

THE BALLS AND TURNERS.

A Clash Between the Two Factions on the Street at Middlesboro, in Which Fifty Shots Were Exchanged.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Nov. 10.—For two hours Thursday there was intense excitement here, caused by a clash between the Ball and Turner factions. The Balls are Democrats, but espoused the cause of Taylor for governor. Charles Pridemore, a Turner follower, and C. D. Ball met and began shooting at each other. Their friends assembled and surrounded them. A long range street fight took place in which 50 shots were exchanged. The factions have been at war for many months, and it is feared there will be trouble Friday when the vote is canvassed. Lee Turner, Thursday, returned to the outskirts of town with a large body of men, but as yet no demonstrations have been made.

To Prevent Alleged Election Frauds.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10.—Twelve hundred citizens of all parties met at the opera house Thursday night to devise methods to prevent alleged election frauds. Judges Geo. Denny and R. A. Thornton made addresses counseling force if necessary to prevent it. Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge and C. J. Bronston were more temperate. The former pointed out how Bradley may, under the constitution, continue governor until his successor is qualified, or until the federal court settles the question. One thousand dollars were collected to prosecute alleged frauds in this county.

Mayor and Election Officers Arrested.

COVINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10.—Judge Wheeler Thursday issued warrants for the arrest of Mayor Jos. L. Rhinock, Police Officers Geo. Davis and Joe Jensen, Al Leger, a sheriff of elections, and Everett W. Fairhair, John Thompson, W. C. "Breck" Thornton and G. M. McCoy, all officers of election in precinct A of the First ward. The warrants allege that the men "obstructed and attempted to obstruct an election."

Trouble in Knox County Possible.

FALMOUTH, Ky., Nov. 10.—The Democrats threaten to throw out the vote in Knox county on account of various alleged reasons. The town will be full of republicans Friday who say they intend to have their rights. If crookedness is attempted there will certainly be trouble. The mountaineers are armed.

Butted to Death by a Bull.

BUTLER, Ky., Nov. 10.—Thomas K. Bradford, 75 years of age, was instantly killed by a bull Thursday morning. He was passing through a field when the animal attacked him. The bull had no horns, but butted him to death before assistance could reach him.

Goebel Men Suspended.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10.—Policemen Dennis McCarthy, William Jenkins and Charles Oberly have been suspended by the board of police commissioners here for taking part in the election. They were Goebel men.

Old Grudge Settled.

RICHMOND, Ky., Nov. 10.—Irvine Johnson was shot in the forehead by Brock Mundy, who was in turn stabbed, perhaps fatally, by Johnson. Both are colored, and were drinking. Mundy will die. It was an old grudge.

Prepared to Prosecute.

CARLEISLE, Ky., Nov. 10.—Republican managers claim to have evidence that frauds were committed Tuesday and will prosecute the alleged offenders in the United States courts.

Big Taylor Vote in Harlan.

HARLAN, Ky., Nov. 10.—Harlan county's vote is as follows: Goebel, 2234; Brown, 17; Taylor, 1,312.

Big Fire in a Louisiana Town.

COLUMBIA, La., Nov. 10.—Almost the entire business portion of this town was destroyed by fire Thursday. The merchants had the largest stocks they have had for years in anticipation of a good fall trade. Loss estimated at $75,000. Insurance $36,000.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE.

NIGHT TURNED INTO DAY

For the benefit of our large and growing after-supper trade, we have lighted our store with electricity.

Our Store is Now Light as Day!

Our desire is and always has been to give our patrons the best of service, and we feel sure that our clientele of evening shoppers will appreciate this latest and expensive effort of ours to please. In the latter part of August The Price Fighter visited the Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition and purchased the entire line of samples of Fall Styles of seven of the largest manufacturers of Leather, Reed, Roman and Reception Chairs in America; also the entire line of samples of the three (3) largest Novelty Manufacturers in America.

These Holiday Goods are now arriving daily, and as fast as uncared are marked at half price.

We absolutely defy the whole known world on these goods! We will forfeit $100 for the production of like values of any competitor!

The Price Fighter has never misled you. On the other hand, there is not a precinct in five counties in which the reading and thinking people have not profited by The Price Fighter's advice. I now say to you that in all my mercantile experience my eyes never beheld such bargains as these Christmas goods that I now wish to show you.

My Advice Now Is Come Quick!

At the price marked they won't stay long. Come inspect the prettiest stock of Furniture in the Ohio Valley. It costs you

NOTHING TO LOOK AND

LITTLE MORE TO BUY.

We have just noticed a competitor's claim that he has "The finest stock of furniture in Maysville and is still on top." It costs nothing to SAY that; but it is

Solemnly Awful to Verify

a statement of that kind with a

Production of the Goods!

There is but one man in this county with nerve enough to exhibit a full line of Turkish, Roman and Oriental Parlor Goods in Maysville.

The Price Fighter has invested $7,000 in Fancy Chairs, Desks, Tables, Dressing Cases and Divans for the Holiday Trade of 1899.

We Admit No Peer!

We claim to exhibit in MAYSVILLE a line of Holiday Furniture that would do credit to any town of 100,000 inhabitants

At One-Half the Price Asked by City Stores.

I will forfeit $100 if this is not a fact. Our customers have long since learned to place absolute confidence in our every statement; but it is a lamentable fact that there are yet a few—just a very few—people to whom The Price Fighter is yet a stranger in a business way. To these few I now say

Please Give Me a Square Deal.

Please give me the consideration to which I am entitled. I certainly am entitled to some consideration for having brought New York City to your door. All I ask is that you look at my Christmas stock and learn the prices on same. I will consider it a friendly and charitable act if you will just come inside of my front door! I have spent six months collecting these novelties from all over the world, and all I ask is that you call and look at them! Surely that is a modest request. Hoping that you will inspect my superb line of Christmas goods, I am your venturesome friend.

HOME INDUSTRY.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., October 27th, 1899.
I wish to announce to the public and citizens of Maysville that I, O. D. BARRASS, on the 24th of this month bought out the "Power Laundry" of Mr. D. P. Oet of this city. I also hope I may still enjoy the trade of my predecessor, as I have had fourteen years experience in the laundry business, which insures to the patron superior work with the least injury to the fabric. To all say do not forget home industry, as it is patriotic in principle. Yours very respectfully
O. D. BARRASS.
